A BILL

To authorize the Secretary of State to pay a reward to combat transnational organized crime and for information concerning foreign nationals wanted by international criminal tribunals, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Department of State
3 Rewards Program Update and Technical Corrections Act
4 of 2012”.

5 SEC. 2. FINDINGS; SENSE OF CONGRESS.

6 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following find-
7 ings:

8 (1) The Department of State’s existing rewards
9 programs permit the payment of reward for informa-
10 tion leading to the arrest or conviction of—

11 (A) individuals who have committed, or at-12 tempted or conspired to commit, certain acts of 13 international terrorism;

14 (B) individuals who have committed, or at-
15 tempted or conspired to commit, certain nar-
16 cootics-related offenses; and

17 (C) individuals who have been indicted by 18 certain international criminal tribunals.

19 (2) The Department of State considers the re-20 wards program to be “one of the most valuable as-21 sets the U.S. Government has in the fight against 22 international terrorism”. Since the program’s incep-
23 tion in 1984, the United States Government has re-24 warded over 60 people who provided actionable in-25 formation that, according to the Department of 26 State, prevented international terrorist attacks or

1 helped convict individuals involved in terrorist at-2 tacks.

3 (3) The program has been credited with pro-
4 viding information in several high-profile cases, in-
5 cluding the arrest of Ramzi Yousef, who was con-
6 victed in the 1993 bombing of the World Trade Cen-
7 ter, the deaths of Uday and Qusay Hussein, who 8 United States military forces located and killed in 9 Iraq after receiving information about their loca-
10 tions, and the arrests or deaths of several members
11 of the Abu Sayyaf group, believed to be responsible 12 for the kidnappings and deaths of United States citi-
13 zens and Filipinos in the Philippines.

14 (b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
15 gress that the rewards program of the Department of 16 State should be expanded in order to—

17 (1) address the growing threat to important
18 United States interests from transnational criminal 19 activity, such as intellectual property rights piracy,
20 money laundering, trafficking in persons, arms traf-
21 ficking, and cybercrime; and

22 (2) target other individuals indicted by inter-
23 national, hybrid, or mixed tribunals for genocide,
24 war crimes, or crimes against humanity.

3 States Code) that involves at least one jurisdiction
4 outside the United States; or
